

Untitled Note

Sun, [REDACTED] 19, 2020 3:21AM 6:51

SUMMARY [REDACTED]

man, fact, [REDACTED] shooting, lived, precision, culture, unloading, self serving, shoot, ruining, perform, conceited, affected, manhood, manner, wear, ability, person, [REDACTED]

SPEAKERS

[REDACTED] [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] 00:02

What does it mean to be a man

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] 00:12

doesn't make you throw your waiter. It doesn't mean you're a man, because you throw your way around, it doesn't mean that you're a man. Because of who's as you beat. It doesn't matter who's asked you to be doesn't make a man how much money you make, doesn't make you a good man, how much money you make it doesn't make a [REDACTED] good man, the car you drive doesn't make you a good man. The [REDACTED] you leave behind doesn't make you a good man, career that you had. And it doesn't make your man who's your dad doesn't make you a man. What deer you've killed. It doesn't make you a man. How many lives you took. It doesn't matter.

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] 01:23

Thank you. It's not about the size of the gun that you carry that you wear. It's not about the size of the gun you were. It's about how you weren't. It's not about how fast you shoot. It's all about how you shoot. It doesn't it make you man. How much land you own. It's how you own it. It doesn't make you man that you're always right. In fact, quite the opposite is true, makes you more of a man, how many times you, how many times you've been wrong. You know it. And you apologize for it doesn't make you man. Besides your truck. And it doesn't make you man. How many women you [REDACTED] What makes you man. It's not the things that you wear, and even to a degree. It's not the fact that you even care. It's a very complicated thing. What makes you a man is not the life that you've led how you'd let it is not necessarily the fact that you're a moral person. It's the fact that you've lived life. Animal way. It's not that. He's built up this [REDACTED] your own you know you worked on your own [REDACTED] is that you haven't affected the [REDACTED] of others.

████████ ██████████ ██████████

Does that make your man, how much better you think then you are in a minute, how much better you think you are than other people. What makes you man is realizing how much further you have to go. In ██████████ to meet your potential. That's the thing I've ██████████ about shooting, shooting is all about like precision. It's all about performing a rather simple act. An extremely efficient way. But I think that there's a culture that is ruining it ruining it, and destroying.

████████ ██████████ 04:30

And I think that this culture is lost in what it means to be a man. Because it's not about how many bullets anyone hears an idiot can go about unloading and wasting away, you know, a couple thousand dollars. It's not it doesn't make your man what you shoot. This is ██████████ a precision skill you've achieved.

████████ ██████████ 05:12

That's what we're shooting is a reflection of manhood. Because it's not about your ability to intimidate it's not about your ability to show that person or show this person. It's not about your ability to dominate. It's about the ability for you to live up to your potential. And it's all about the ability. It's all about the manner in which you perform your ██████████ How you expect others. And what's the one is world like after searching after leaving a ██████████ here. What you left behind. And then it's really all about self serving purpose. And that's conceited. Considering this should always be a ██████████ and culture, always.

████████ ██████████ 06:00

████████ ██████████ 06:25

It's not really the fact that, you know, you've lived a morally good life. It's the manner in which you lived it. This manner which you've affected. others from living morally good life. Anyway.