Here's to the clock and the headaches have already driven by and said hi they did so by revving their engines. What I thought was particularly interesting about this, this thing is, is that I was sitting here target pricing with the pellet rifle. And I [REDACTED] this loud ass engine take off from Kenny leg road, then I turn around, look. And there was a sheriff behind him. And then followed by two more cars then came out and hit [REDACTED] and red that red line there engines. And the sheriff wasn't speeding nor was the sheriff chasing him, which I found extremely suspicious. Almost as if they were all sitting there at a meeting together and decided to leave at the same time very suspicious. And it's very questionable it looks, it appears as if the sheriff is in on it. Whoever that was whether that was hearing from Sheriff himself or the deputy, but it appears as if whoever was in that that deputy sheriff's car was in pot was in on it. That's very suspicious.
