The more I think about it, I don't know. At one point they had me believing that this was [REDACTED] completely an innocent action. But upon reflection it was definitely not that this was there's [REDACTED] too many coincidences. There are too many coincidences and there was a minimal amount done. They literally did the minimal amount under the wall. And this entire thing was meant to push us out to make us uncomfortable to keep knowledge from us. prevent us from protecting a farm and to screw us over. That's what this entire thing is about. About the call on for the Yeah, everything. This is all all of the timings to perfect. All of this is that they're all in on it. [REDACTED] isn't on it. Of course Doug is in on it. Abernathy isn't on it. And Dayton sin on it. This is a group of people who got in, hatched the scheme and did this to protect one member but then harm the other. This is this is specifically this entire all this [REDACTED] has been specifically intended to cause harm and to give Doug a boost and it's a scandal. It is completely an utterly land scandal.
