One thing then clearly not mindful mentioning was the hopes, dreams, plans and intentions i have for the property. I mean, it wasn't [REDACTED] that we were cut out. We were cut out from any opportunity that we're that, you know, our homes have been ruined. Our home stands on ruined because of this. It's not only all that [REDACTED] it's the fact that life you know, someone who is I'm going to be farming. Me I'm going to be living a farm style life or I'm going to be doing some form of farming my entire life. I mean, it's [REDACTED] part of how I grew up. I was raised. I got an education and it's something an investor. And, you know, money's not fallen from trees from pecan trees. They're [REDACTED] not. There were people that can plan on doing that, or people that already have a massive investment. Yeah. So I needed another crop, I need another crop. And in [REDACTED] to do that, I've got to have clear acreage fill and clear land. And I need to also ensure that I don't get landlocked. Here
