It's a [REDACTED] night. [REDACTED] notice a side by side going into the neighborhood stuff down the road. So beside going in there, it's coming to the opposite direction. So there they go in. So that's either someone's visiting them or whatever, but it definitely looks like me the only one that lives down there is Abernathy. So there you go. And last week is last Wednesday. Abernathy put that not Abernathy but Ronnie so yeah, I bet you anything Abernathy son is dating her dating her daughter. He's tied into this. He's tied into all this and running put up start putting up a fence Wednesday and so that gives us a date and time. Um, I think two weeks prior to that's when when they were doing work. They started clearing off land the [REDACTED] before that. [REDACTED] got to do a better [REDACTED] of starting to keeping track of things because it's all going to start mattering. But you know that yeah, I read that takes up to two years in this. And then you got then, you know, you emailed a new device twice. And she met she's not responding to emails anymore. She's refusing to enforce the code which is which she's unforced other under. So that right there is itself is a Wall Street. So I would take a dog first and then and then go for the rest of them. But yeah, you're gonna have to have some big top big honkin lawyer in here. And [REDACTED] start starts doing the shutter because that's what this is. It's that's what it is. So, Abernathy, scepters ears in this
