[REDACTED] 00:01

It's six o'clock on Wednesday. And I wish I'd turn my microphone on as it was doing but I was actually trying to do something else but I'm like walk into my I mean, I've walked this path a lot with the path between our two houses like four or five times a day. Been doing it for most of my adult life. And the new neighbors across the street from us if they were I can overhear some things were saying and they were talking loud so we could hear it. And they were [REDACTED] being [REDACTED] and they were [REDACTED] trying to start a fight. They're [REDACTED] trying to start something. And [REDACTED] saying things like, well, we ain't got nothing. chicken house and then tell the panel that we're here. And, you know, it looked like [REDACTED] over there. And I was like, yeah, there's so they were [REDACTED] they were [REDACTED] starting to talk and they were talking about us where we could hear it. Being harassing and trying to start a conflict. And [REDACTED] want to get that [REDACTED] They've been hostile since they came over here. We've never we've not done anything to them. The first time we met the second time we met them. They drove it the reason why we met them is because they drove a truck and trailer to the middle of our [REDACTED] So yeah, we [REDACTED] it's not been good. They when they've done everything they can to make life difficult for us and to harass us and to disturb us. And they how they even got this property is a questionable so they're [REDACTED] like crooks. So yeah, I [REDACTED] want to get that [REDACTED] And because I'm gonna have to start documenting everything here because I'm not gonna leave without a fight. But um, I did [REDACTED] call Mary Oberg. And I called the other law like your parents, so we're going to find a lawyer. Kind of distracted right now.
