It's 630 on Tuesday, and [REDACTED] like every time I walk outside my house, and I try to be outside my house and [REDACTED] happens. The Tyler's combined their big [REDACTED] truck. [REDACTED] like every time it's happened so far. He is maxed out his truck he is throttled it to the max and intentionally spanned out spinned out and burned rubber an attempt to irritate harass and intimidate. We really got to get moving on this because Doug [REDACTED] [REDACTED] this dog [REDACTED] flat as [REDACTED] this part really hurts. But I'm sitting around here and this is not where we want to live, but how we wanted to live. We had no choice in it. And we were cheated out of every opportunity we could. I mean, this was an intentional ploy by Doug and Abernathy to get back in spite us and to put us in a position where we will move. That's what this was for. This is all about Abernathy getting back at us.
