Earlier today I went out and take my dog out for a walk and had my had my rifle. So I was hoping that going out for a walk would give me time some time to to shoot a little bit with with her and, you know kind of gets her time to go out in the woods whenever and she's uh, inquisitive, you know, hoping that she would, you know, learn to learn some to be free you know, and so I've been doing walking in the house and I you know, pulled out my you know, as soon as I got past the tractor shed and I could see the at the property I noticed that Mr. Simmons was on his land and was pulling a trailer and a train leaving. At which point I [REDACTED] didn't noticed it and I [REDACTED] kept on doing what I was doing. I was actually surfing the web and at the same time and looking up some information on a on an air rifle. I was actually an air pistol I was looking at looking at a one set a small caliber one to use for some field target competitions. Because my current air air pistol is only 20 is 22 caliber. And it's too powerful for the meet the requirements of the competition. So basically, so that's what I was doing. I was looking that stuff up and I noticed a folding in his driveway and he [REDACTED] stopped and he [REDACTED] stayed there and in. I kept on surfing and surfing surfing and I noticed he [REDACTED] kept on staying there and turns there and it was almost like every time I moved in a lake, you know, [REDACTED] kind of felt like I was being watched. I knew I was being watched. And, you know, I [REDACTED] kept on doing it. Doing whatever you know doing what I wanted to do. [REDACTED] kind of stayed in one place. And a couple steps [REDACTED] now [REDACTED] kind of stay in one place, did it and eventually, you know, you [REDACTED] kept on sitting there and sitting there and you know, it was like five or 10 minutes had gone by conventionally it was kind of like well do I need to sit down? And because I can [REDACTED] sit down here and I'm not going to I don't need to scamper off I don't need to hide or anything I [REDACTED] need to do whatever I was going to do and I [REDACTED] stay there. He [REDACTED] sees was staring near watch me and we're in it's five or 10 minutes and a good bit of time or time that he needed to hop out and close the [REDACTED] behind him and then a you know, eventually you know, after several months pass eventually got tired did tired of waiting on me. And he drove off. And you know that was [REDACTED] kind of odd and but that's not the first time he's done it and he's throughout all of all of the interactions with with the neighbors. You know Mr. Simmons has been the most the [REDACTED] he has been the most aggressive he has been the most conflicting. You know he has been the the antagonist in almost all these events. So that was [REDACTED] kind of interesting. And I you know, after he left whenever I kept on hearing some voices and whatever I could do, I couldn't like barely hear him or whatever. And then there's another neighbor and the nice gentleman that lives down the road and we talked a little bit I didn't mention anything about about any anything that's going on around here. And that was it. We were I [REDACTED] stepped out right now. And you know it's quarter till three. I [REDACTED] stepped out right now and had a year and notice it was it was [REDACTED] Mr. Simmons coming down the road I guess with Mr. Simmons. And [REDACTED] he we have whole pasture house and then he came to stop and then he slammed slammed the the accelerator vehicle and pulled over and sped off. You know, and these are [REDACTED] all acts acts of irritation. to irritate and intimidate and it's it's uncalled for you know, we've we've made six phone calls to different attorneys trying to receive [REDACTED] counsel in the league and we have yet been able to contact a single one. No one's returning our phone call or anything. So this is becoming very frustrating. We know that what happened to us was wrong. We know that we have been wronged. We know that that is there's [REDACTED] grounds for action. But it [REDACTED] seems that whenever we relate what is going on with us it sounds more or less like we're [REDACTED] complaining we're [REDACTED] we're [REDACTED] you know it sounds like we're there's no [REDACTED] grounds. But the amount that what we're experiencing is [REDACTED] not is it's not normal by any stretch and it's more than [REDACTED] like irritating you know, this person is irritating me or I don't want this whatever we're experiencing is you know, acts of intimidation, acts of aggression, and whatever so it's not cool. Anyway, that's it. I'll talk to ya. That's it. I'm going to get back go off and shoot my dogs. Now going around the front and the front of the house. So get her in a bit looking very overcast right now. It's rough was good day, but that's it. It's very frustrating. All this is
